

The Recruitment International China Awards 2017

BO LE ANNOUNCED AS WINNER!

Thursday 18th May 2017

“Congratulations to our group winners at The RI CHINA Awards: Bo Le Associates and BRecruit!”

Pierre Zhuang
CEO of Bo Le Associates

The most competitive and prestigious award out of the twelve award categories, The Best Employer of the Year, was presented to Bo Le Associates and received by Pierre Zhang on behalf of all Bo Le consultants at the 18th of May evening ceremony.

The Recruitment International awards, well known throughout the industry for their integrity and professionalism were entering their 17th year as a marker of industry standards. 2017 enjoyed the awards' third year in China and were well attended by over one hundred senior directors and owners from 30 of the top recruitment companies in the region.

The Best Employer of the Year 最佳雇主品牌

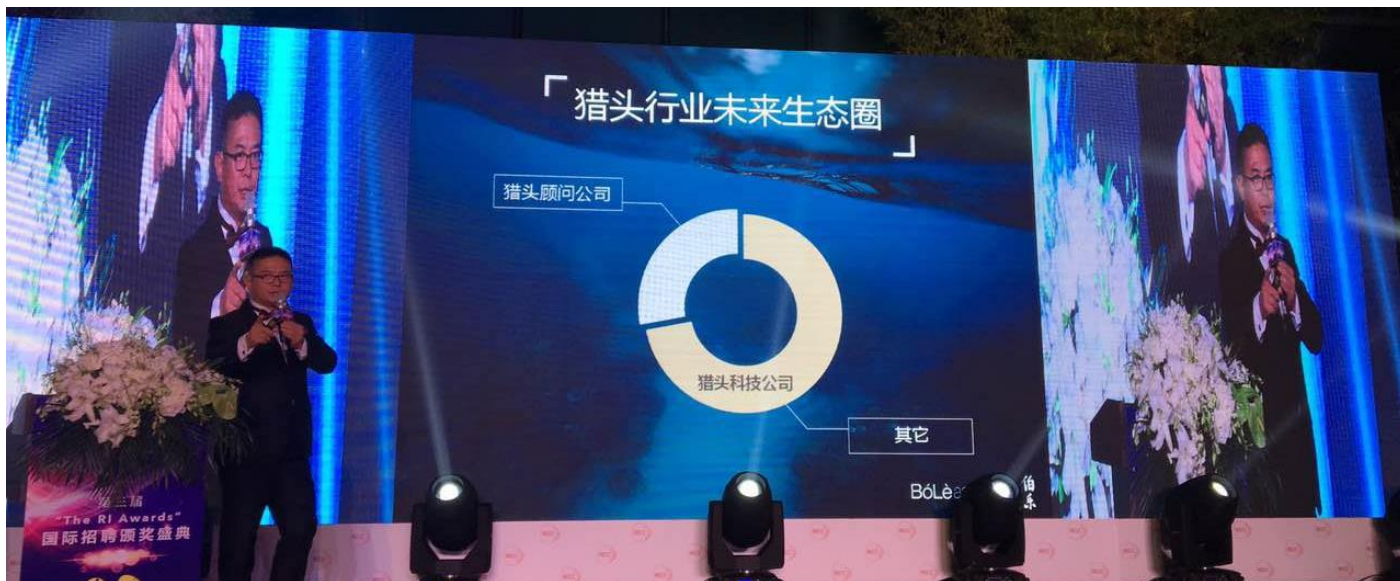

The organizer and judges of RI Awards had this to say about Bo Le Associates:

“Fostering a qualified consultant over FIVE years and cultivating a legendary consultant over TEN years, Bo Le Associates invests in Talent, a company who prides itself on delivering world-class executive search services.

Bo Le starts with a foundation based on a clear picture of employees’ career paths. Referring to the acquisition and retention of top talent, Bo Le trains and nurtures competent individuals, leading to long-term success. The average length of stay for all employees is 6.4 years, and the average duration of a Managing Director’s career in Bo Le is over 13 years!

Furthermore, workforce stability and impartial reward plans play key factors in maintaining employee morale, engagement and motivation, leading to the nomination and award of outstanding recruiter in the market.”

Pierre was invited to present the topic “Dynamic era, are we adapting?”

Pierre spoke about trying to foresee an eco-system within the recruiting business of the future where consultants will evolve alongside changes in recruitment technology.

ABOUT THE AWARDS

The RI Awards for China were held at the Grand Hyatt Hotel, Shanghai on Thursday 18th May 2017, with the gala dinner commencing in the late evening.

The RI Awards are contested all over the world including the UK, China, The Middle East, Australia, Singapore, Japan and Hong Kong. The RI Award trophies not only look and feel unique but are also a fitting celebration to mark the achievements of exceptional businesses and people involved.

The aim of the recruitment industry awards is to recognize innovation and best practice in the China recruitment industry. It assesses and rewards the best recruitment companies in the region and brings the leading recruitment professionals together to celebrate the cream of the industry and recognize their performance over the calendar year.

